Dwell Dec 31 2019 At Dwell, we're staging a minor revolution. We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect, to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed, and still be a regular human being. We think that good design is an integral part of real life. And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines.

Research in Computational Molecular Biology Sep 27 2019 This volume contains the papers presented at RECOMB 2009: the 13th Annual International Conference on Research in Computational Molecular Biology held in Tucson, Arizona, USA, during May 18-21, 2009. The RECOMB conference series was started in 1997 by Sorin Istrail, Pavel Pevzner, and Michael Watman. RECOMB 2009 was hosted by the University of Arizona, organized by a committee chaired by John Kececioğlu, and took place at The Westin LaPaloma Resort and Spa in Tucson, Arizona. This year, 37 papers were accepted for presentation out of 166 submissions. The papers presented were selected by the Program Committee (PC) assisted by a number of external reviewers. Each paper was reviewed by three members of the PC, or by external reviewers acting as sub-reviewers to members of the PC. Following the initial reviews, there was an extensive Web-based discussion over a period of two weeks, leading to the final decisions. The RECOMB conference series is closely associated with the Journal of Computational Biology, which traditionally publishes special issues devoted to presenting full versions of selected conference papers. RECOMB 2009 invited several distinguished speakers as keynotes and for a special session on "Personalized Genomics". Invited speakers included Carlos D. Bustamante (Cornell University), Rade Drmanac (Complete Genomics), Mark Gerstein (Yale University), Eran Halperin (Navigenics), Michael Hammer (University of Arizona), Joanna Mountain (23andMe), Stephen Quake (Stanford University), Mostafa Ronaghi (Illumina), Pardis Sabeti (Harvard University), and Michael Snyder (Yale University).

German Inheritance and Gift Tax Reform 2009 Aug 07 2020 Inhaltsangabe: Introduction: Background and Subject of this Thesis: After long negotiations within the Grand Coalition (Große Koalition) and despite jurisdictional criticisms of numerous points, on 31st December 2008 the new inheritance and gift tax law (Erbschaftsteuerreformgesetz - ErbStRG) was published in the Federal Law Gazette (Bundesgesetzblatt), to become effective on 1st January 2009 just in time to avoid the need for retroactive regulations and the related discussions. This marks the end of the discussion about the future of the inheritance tax that has been started by the decision of the Federal Constitutional Court (Bundesverfassungsgericht - BVerfG) from 7th November 2006. The related uncertainty came to an end, at least for now. In its decision the Federal Constitutional Court states, that the discrepancy between fair market value and valuation value for significant groups of assets (business assets, portions of corporations, real estate property and agriculture and forestry (AF) businesses) are violating the principle of equality of § 3 sec. 1 of the German Basic Law (Grundgesetz - GG). The legislative was obliged to define a new legislation in line with the constitution until 31 December 2008, latest. On 11 December 2007, the German Federal Government (Bundesregierung) finally agreed on a draft revision of the inheritance and gift tax law and the valuation law. The German Federal Parliament (Bundestag) passed the inheritance tax reform on 27 November 2008 in the 2nd and 3rd reading, during which the finance committee of the German Parliament (Finanzausschuss des Bundestages) made considerable changes to the original draft. The approval in the German Federal Council (Bundesrat) was obtained in the special session of the council on 5.12.2008, the approval of the Federal President (Bundespräsident) on 24.12.2008. Current Situation: In addition to the changes necessary for constitutional reasons, the central concern of the reform is to simplify business takeover by the successors. However, the legislator neither has had the courage to - as hoped by many - completely abolish inheritance taxation, nor did he take the opportunity to perform a complete change of the inheritance taxation system which might become mandatory for constitutional reasons. The result is a compromise between of the various government parties: a law that amends the existing inheritance tax law on which it is based in a limited number of points. The new [...]

Insider's Guide to Key Committee Staff of the U.S. Congress 2009 Feb 10 2021 It's All Who You Know When Working the System Here's How to Get to Know the Right People The world's attention turned to the U.S. Capitol on January 20, 2009, when Barack Obama took the Presidential oath of office. But inside the building, changes had already taken place that would have broad implications for his agenda. The 111th Congress had convened on January 6 with a far stronger Democratic majority than the one that had preceded it. Their ambitious legislative agenda requires the assistance of their staffs to prepare them for all the important issues on the legislative table. Thus, it is more important than ever to know about senior congressional committee staff members and the role they play in shaping today's legislation. While members of the House of Representatives and the Senate enact laws, it is often their staffers who exert the greatest influence in the lawmaking process. Staffers advise their elected bosses, establish political positions on issues, craft legislation, put policies in place, and play important roles on scores of congressional committees. The next time you need to find out who is the most effective person to advocate your cause turn to the Insider's Guide for all the answers. Overall it provides access to an important, if not very visible, component of the legislative process. Recommended-CHOICE The Insider's Guide to Key Committee Staff of the U.S. Congress contains in-depth profiles on key congressional staff members that you will not find elsewhere. The information provided on these personnel gives you not only the contact information and other pertinent data but also the inside track to those people. These are the staffers who work with and support the representatives and senators in various important roles that help to enact change or refine existing laws and codes that govern our nation. With all the sweeping changes that have taken place since the Obama administration took office, this essential resource has never been more important or more valuable. This new edition features over 125 new profiles and is designed to be the ultimate for quick and easy reference. The Insider's Guide is the leading source for information on more than 600 congressional staff members. The profiles included feature: In-depth biographical information Detailed professional history and educational background Staff members' areas of expertise and committee role Up-to-date contact information and photograph, when available Staffers' own insights as to their committee's priorities and special projects during this session of Congress Organized by House, Senate, and Joint committee assignments, you'll find both the person you're looking for and information on his or her individual impact on legislation and decision-making. With this Insider's Guide, you'll never again need to question who is the most effective person to advocate your cause.
